DLI Language Day scheduled for Friday

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 16, 2006

The Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center (DLIFLC) is holding its annual Language Day from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., May 19th at the Presidio of Monterey, California.

More than 800 middle schools, high schools and colleges from three states have been invited to this year's event. Language Day will give students a chance to experience language learning and culture, while highlighting the professionalism and honor of military service.

DLIFLC is a Department of Defense educational institution training the best service members in the Army, Marine Corps, Navy and Air Force. DLIFLC is home to more than 3,000 military students annually. The Institute welcomes the opportunity to show visitors why it is the premier foreign language institute in the world.

Language Day participation is by invitation. Those who hold military IDs or a DD-214, accompanied by a photo ID, should enter via Pvt. Bolio Road entrance.

For more information on this year's Language Day, contact the DLIFLC Public Affairs Office at (831) 242-6429. Media are encouraged to attend and will have access to all events and activities. Please RSVP to (831) 242-6430, to facilitate access to the Presidio at the High Street Gate.
